

Beautiful Sister

On the hot black shores of Sunset Boulevard
Lies the Tiki Ti
Drive east with the tide to Phoenix
Check in at the Polynesian Seas

Cocktails, seafood, chicken, and steak
Swish, I wish those cars were waves

But that's an ocean
An ocean away
Like a beautiful sister
An ocean away

They built movie set shrines to her beautiful hula
And the umbrella drinks that they'd make
Called them tiki bars,
Worshipped by cars down on PCH

Cocktails, seafood, chicken, and steaks
Swish, I wish those cars were waves

But it's an ocean
An ocean away
Like a beautiful sister
An ocean away

It might take the sun and moon to pull me
From this Disneyland of artificial kisses
From rumbling freeway waves
And paradise near-misses
But I feel the tide in a single tear
And I'm caught in an undertow
Of something so lost and so near

Like a beautiful sister
An ocean away
Like a beautiful sister
An ocean away
A beautiful sister
An ocean away
