

Spooky Brew

(Based on the script for a Baby Felix Halloween special)

Well witches will be naughty on Halloween night
Which is a holiday that calls for cauldrons of fright
When it involves a cat, and that cat is you
It's Spoooooky Brew

Watch out FELIX!
They're after you
Watch out FELIX!
You'd better flee
The witches have listed you on their hair-raising recipe

Well witches will be naughty on Halloween night
Which is a holiday that calls for cauldrons of fright
When it involves a cat, and that cat is you
It's Spoooooky Brew

Watch out FELIX!
Spooky Brew!
Watch out FELIX!
You'd better flee
The witches have listed you on their hair-raising recipe

The night has a thousand eyes
(And they're watching you!)
So make sure you have a really good disguise
When your eyes meet across the haunted ballroom
You'll want to have on a spook-ta-cu-lar costume!

Leaves are chattering down windy streets
The moon and shadows playing hide and seek
When you've been tricked into being a treat
It's Spoooooky Brew!

Watch out FELIX!
They're after you
Watch out FELIX!
You'd better flee
The witches have listed you on their hair-raising recipe

Well witches will be naughty on Halloween night
Which is a holiday that calls for cauldrons of fright
When it involves a cat, and that cat is you
